

Terms and Conditions:

1. Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing:

Tri2champ is committed to conducting its services with honesty and fairness.

2. Event Cancellation:

Tri2champ reserves the right to cancel the event due to various reasons, including forces of nature, medical necessities, or safety concerns.

3. Refund Policy:

In case of event cancellation, tri2champ will adopt the "best possible refund policy" for participants. Specific details are not provided, but efforts will be made to refund fees fairly.

4. Exclusion of Travel and Accommodation Expenses:

Participants are responsible for their own travel and accommodation expenses.

we can arrange school or marriage hall where swimmers can stay free overnight on Saturday. Runners and Volunteers could be accommodated to stay. *Only Space will be arranged for those opting to stay overnight. Nothing else will be provided by the Organizing Team. *

5. Organizers' Decision:

The organizers' decisions are final and binding in all event matters.

6. Medical/Insurance/Waiver's Submission

Athlete has to submit the Medical Fitness Certificate, Medical/Travel Insurance Copy and Waiver's form on or before 15th Day after Registration via Email @team.tri2champ@gmail.com with the subject line " Document Submission - TRI2CHAMP - AQUAFEST 2024 - PUDUCHERRY", if documents are not received on time Athlete will not permit in race day.

Race Kit Collection Requirements:

Participants must personally collect their race kit during designated times.

Knowledge of race number is necessary.

Verification of participant information is required.

Failure to collect the race kit within specified times results in ineligibility.

Documentation for Swimmers:

Swimmers must carry a valid photo ID.

For minors (under 18), a parent or guardian must also provide ID and an authorization letter.

Guardians must be physically present with minors on the event day.

Consequences of Non-compliance:

Failure to follow race kit collection rules leads to disqualification.

Requesting Assistance:

Swimmers in need of rest or water should signal the nearest kayak for assistance with a flotation device.

Respect Toward Volunteers and Race Officials:

Participants are expected to treat volunteers and race officials with respect and courtesy.

Disrespect or discourtesy may result in disqualification.

Identity Confirmation and Consequences:

Participant identity and age will be verified using registration information.

Providing false information or documents for eligibility may lead to registration cancellation and no fee refund.

Violators may face temporary or permanent bans from future Tri2champ events.